

Table of the Prophecy of the Popes

The Prophecy of the Popes is presented at first in Latin, then in English (next pages).

Explanations of the structure of the table

Purplish section: the Avignon Papacy (1309-1378).

Greenish section: the Great Occidental Schism (1378-1417), with a paler extension to include the mottos 51 to 54.

Pale blue section: the Papacy of the XXth century: «An entire epoch!» (mottos 103 to 107).

Red pale section: the Church of John, renewal of the Church of Peter.

The last eight mottos (104 to 111) cover the period named: «End of the Times», «Day of Yahweh», «Apocalypse» (1917-2033). According to Raoul Auclair, this period opens officially on 2 November 1917.

Numbers highlighted in blue: the mottos quoted or commented by Raoul Auclair in his various writings.

Numbers highlighted in purple: besides the previous mottos, the present study lingers over some other mottos not quoted by Raoul.

Numbers followed by an asterisk: the mottos corresponding to an antipope.

Terms underlined in red: in reference to the astral symbolism.

Terms underlined by a double wavy line: in reference to the naval symbolism.

Dates in brackets are relative to the reign (for the men), to the birth and to the death (for the women). The end of the reign corresponds generally to the death, save in the cases of Saint Celestine V, Gregory XII and Benedictus XVI (who resigned).

Nationalities (indicated by means of the modern flags)

 (Germany)	 (Belgium)	 (Netherlands)
 (England)	 (Spain)	 (Poland)
 (Argentina)	 (France)	 (Portugal)
 (Canada)	 (Italy)
The absence of flag indicates that the person belongs to the Italian peninsula.
